WRITTEN ASSIGNMENT

In an effort to show the selection committee your ability to organize and present your ideas and views complete the following writing assignment:

Pretend that the local Board of Education has decided to eliminate all music and athletic programs in next school year's plans. You have been given an opportunity to speak at the next board meeting for not longer than four minutes. Assume you are opposed to the cuts, even though you will not be a high school student next year.

As an additional part of your application, write and submit your original presentation that you would read to the Board at the next meeting.
