LINDALE HIGH SCHOOL AND CHICK-FIL-A JOIN TOGETHER
TO SERVE THE COMMUNITY

Lindale High School and Chick-fil-A have joined together to create a school-wide volunteer day. On April 15, LHS Chick-fil-A Leadership Academy students will conduct a service project throughout the community of Lindale. Several LHS clubs, organizations, and groups will be participating to help give back to the Lindale community in a variety of ways.

Some jobs include collecting trash, repairing the Lindale Library gazebo, and serving at the David Powell Food Pantry. LHS culinary students will also be making prepared meals to deliver to the elderly.

“It all began last summer when Chick-fil-A-Lindale Operator, Mr. Joshua Johnson reached out, offering to sponsor Lindale High School students through the Chick-fil-A Leadership Academy,” said Melisa Dukes, LHS principal. “The academy takes the students along a seven month journey to help develop student leaders. Our students have been applying their skills throughout the year by giving back through the Big Thank You project, Do Good December project, and their final Impact project which is on April 15th.”

Students and volunteers will meet at the high school at 9 a.m. for the Volunteer Day. All volunteer projects are expected to be completed by noon. Everyone will meet back at the high school for lunch provided by Chick-fil-A.

“This opportunity has been life changing for many of our students, and could not be done without the support of Mr. Johnson and the LHS sponsor, Jennifer King,” said Dukes. “We are excited for our LHS students to give back to our Lindale community and show our appreciation.”
